See the latest in technology solutions for small to mid-sized businesses at Mile High Stadium on April 25th, 2018.

DENVER - April 3, 2018 - PRLog -- Will you be in the Denver area on April 25th? If so, be sure to make a stop at the Mile High Stadium for the Denver Business Tech Expo to watch Massive Networks CTO, Paul Mako as he joins the Business Leadership Luncheon panel, moderated by Heidi Williams, the Mayor of Thornton.

Mako will join an array of executives from IQ Wired, Epicurean Group, and RTL Networks on the panel, which takes place on Wednesday, April 25th from 12:00 PM to 1:00 PM. Mako, along with Larry Dipasquale, CEO of Epicurean Group, Tatiana Finkelsteyn, Founder of IQ Wired, and Richard Lewis, CEO of RTL Networks, will offer insight on rapid technological changes, protect your business from cyber criminals, and managing growth.

Massive Networks is a premier network transportation and colocation provider that specializes in Premium-Blended Internet and layer 2 Private Line Transport connections from office-to-office, data centers, and cloud applications for hard to reach facilities. With over 1.7 million fiber-lit buildings nationwide, Massive Networks can transform network connectivity from bandwidth-intensive services with their One Pipe Multi-Connect Solution.

"I am excited to join IQ Wired, Epicurean Group, and RTL Networks thought leaders on the panel at the Denver Business Tech Expo, an event that unites all sectors of the IT marketplace for local businesses," states Mako. "This event is critical for companies looking to expand their services, update their current applications, and understand what options are available to them to make effective buying decisions."
